For a successful 21st century!

From war to peace: let's reveal our creative potential

The "Dialogues en humanité", a global forum on the human issue, invites you all to its next event in Lyon!

Making the human issue a political one, such is the ambition of the "Dialogues en humanité" (human dialogues). This three-day event aims to create a different kind of environment to facilitate a genuine interaction between children, scientists, artists, entrepreneurs, social and political activists. It also involves representatives of the world's main spiritual traditions and conveyors of humanity. All these people are gathered together in order to "cultivate" a different world and to meet the challenges of our common future.

A threefold intellectual and practical pathway

Alternatives to fear:

The XX century overcame the two world wars and totalitarianism. But it also witnessed the rise of citizen's resistance movements and various initiatives to promote a more peaceful and fairer world. Have we learnt all the lessons on the human issue from that era? Do we have what it takes to address both injustice and the consequences of climate change? Let's unveil our creative potentials in order to confront these issues. Let's identify the fear and violence mechanisms in order to replace them with a peaceful outlook on life.

Taking care of ourselves, taking care of the others:

The homo sapiens has a long way to go to attain wisdom, to promote a way to come into this world that is gentler and to educate people to joy throughout their life. What can we do to ensure that each and everyone can acquire the emancipation and the autonomy that is necessary to life's challenges but also what it has to offer?

A promising future:

"A million of soft revolutions" are still in place: let's discuss alternatives that may contribute to take up the challenges of our era. For a successful XXI century, let's actively contribute to the transition to a sustainable human development and to a new awakening of civil society!

Plenty of opportunities all day long

During the "Dialogues en humanité" there will be time for debating on current issues, as well as testimonies, artistic performances, relaxation, writing and dancing workshops, as well as activities for children and world food.
